

Dr Peter Tschentscher
First Mayor of the Free and Hanseatic City of Hamburg
President of the Senate

Born on 20 January 1966 in Bremen, Protestant-Lutheran, married, 1 child

- 1985 Abitur (qualification for university entrance) in Oldenburg (Lower Saxony). Alternative Civilian Service in Wittmund (East Friesland)
- 1987 Studies of Medicine and Postgraduate Studies in Molecular Biology in Hamburg, 1994 Master's Degree, 2003 Recognition as a Clinical Chemist, 2006 Specialist in Laboratory Medicine, 2008 Habilitation (postdoctoral qualification) at the Medical Faculty of the University of Hamburg, until 2011 practicing Senior Physician at the Diagnostics Centre of the University Medical Center Hamburg-Eppendorf "UKE)
- 1989 Joined the SPD, Mühlenkamp District. Since 2007 Chair of the SPD District Hamburg North and Member of the Executive Board of the SPD Hamburg
- 1991 to 2008 Member of the District Assembly Hamburg North, 1999 to 2008 Chair of the SPD Parliamentary Group, 2008 to 2011 Member of the Hamburg Parliament, Deputy Chair and Financial Policy Spokesperson of the SPD Parliamentary Group
- 23 March 2011 Elected Senator and became Head of the Ministry of Finance
- 28 March 2018 to 31 December 2018 Plenipotentiary of the Federal Republic of Germany for Cultural Affairs in the Framework of the Franco-German Cooperation Agreement
- Since 28 March 2018, First Mayor of the Free and Hanseatic City of Hamburg.