

GT 4b: Calculating average monthly family income

For incomes from SELF - EMPLOYED work or for public officials

This form is to be filled out if the mother or father is self-employed or a public official.

Name and class of the child:

A Incomes of the parents

(With single-parent families only the income from that person is counted)

Please enter annual amounts

		Father	Mother
1	Income from agriculture and forestry, business operation and self-employed work as stated in the last notice of income tax (*)
2	If the partner is in employment: Annual net earnings from employment including any Christmas and holiday payments in the previous year calculated from the annual tax on income statement from the employer (*)
3	Any other special allowances net (such as indemnity payments or bonuses), insofar as they are not included in the sum under point 2
4	Other earnings such as retirement benefits or pensions
5	Benefits from the German JobCentre in the previous year according to confirmation by the JobCentre for any benefits received (*)
6	Sickness pay
7	First-home buyer allowance
8	Incomes from letting and leasing according to the last notice of income tax assessment
9	Income from capital assets (such as interest and dividends) according to the last notice of income tax assessment
10	Income from maintenance/support payments
11	Other earnings (such as education support, military family support, maternity benefit)
Total A		=

(*) Copies of evidence are to be attached

B The child's income

Child

1	Child support
2	Orphan's benefit, Orphan's benefit with one parent deceased
Total B		=

C Family expenses

C 1 Fixed-rate expenditure for non-self employed work

Father

Mother

1	of EUR 25 a month, corresponding to EUR 300 per annum for each family is to be deducted	EUR 300
2	For non self-employed work (with an existing employment relationship): Fixed rates for work equipment, travel costs, pension plan contributions and contributions to professional bodies of EUR 120 a month corresponds to EUR 1,440 per annum per person
Total C 1		=

C 2 Taxes to be deducted from these earnings after points A.1, A.4, A.8 and A.9

Father

Mother

1	Set personal income tax, solidarity surcharge and church tax less the corresponding tax deductions from wages.
Total C 2		=

Please turn over

C 3 Insurance expenses for people in employment, who do not pay any social insurance contributions

		Father	Mother
1	The sum of the deductible providential expenses or the sum of any extraordinary expenses to which limited deductions apply, the latter less any maintenance costs in the earnings under points A.1, A.2, A.4, A.8 and A.9 according to the last notice of income tax assessment. For earnings under point A.2, a deduction is only carried out for people in employment who do not pay any social insurance contributions
2	Pension plan contributions for earnings under points A.1, A.4, A.8 and A.9 according to the last notice of income tax assessment
Total C 3

D Calculating the adjusted net annual income

Totals A (father/mother)
Plus total B (child)	+
Minus total C 1 (family)	-
Minus the totals C 2 (father/mother)	-
Minus the totals C 3 (father/mother)	-
Total D	=

E Average monthly income

For calculating the individual charge for the child the average monthly family income is determined as

Total D divided by 12	:12	=
------------------------------	------------	----------	--